Embedded SW Student

About The Position

DSP Group is looking for a top EE / CS Student with fast learning abilities for our DSP firmware team. The candidate will join a team of software engineers working on innovative products in the field of audio processing, voice activated products, which is one of the most growing fields in the consumer electronics market. The candidate will take full part in the team's activities which include software design, development, testing and customer support. The candidate will gain proficiency in writing software for complex embedded systems, multi-core, power efficient, high performance chipsets.

Requirements

- 2nd / 3rd year Student for BSc in Electrical/Software Engineering or Computer Science from leading universities with an average score of 85 or higher
- Self-learner
- Problem-solving abilities
- Deep knowledge of C programming
- Good understanding of computer low level operation
- Team player, good interpersonal skills
- Customer oriented attitude

Please send CV to: dspg.embswstudent@applynow.io